Lun Duc Trung, * anti-Communist Vietnamese nationalist leader, is at the current headquarters of the "Viet Nam Nationalist Revolutionary United Front" (Viet Nam Quoc-Dan Cach-Menh Lien-Minh), No. 60, the Bund, Hothow, Hainan. He and his supporters moved from Canton to Hoihow after the fall of Canton to the Communists in October 1949. Lun Duc Trung went to Kweilin and Namming in November to form an "Anti-Communist United Front." returned to Hainen following the retreat of the Kwangsi armies of the Chinese Nationalists. According to Lun Duc Trung's own statements, he and his supporters "are carrying on as ever their movement against Communism, Bolshavism, and Imperialism. France herself is powerless to end the Viet Nam conflict and all French attempts to organize governments with her own hirelings will doubtless result in failure and will play into the hands of the Communists." 2. Luu Duc Trung's wife is in Hong Kong. Luu expected to return to Hong Kong for Christmas but was prevented from doing so by Hong Kong Government restrictions on travellers from Hainan. Ta Nguyen Minh, "Minister of Propaganda" of the Viet Nam Nationalist Revolutionary United Front, is also in Hoihow, Hainan. 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
